Message from the COO

"Beyond Hospitality" is a call to rise above our traditional roles and embrace innovation in every aspect of our operations. It's about challenging ourselves to think differently, to envision new possibilities, and to set audacious goals that will set our company's trajectory in 2024 and beyond.

In an industry known for its dynamism, our collective efforts and shared commitment to excellence have always been the driving force behind our success. As we embark on another promising year, I am thrilled to share our vision and aspirations for 2024.

True success lies not just in meeting expectations but in exceeding them. Our journey doesn't stop after overpassing 25 years, it takes an exciting turn towards a future where we not only excel in hospitality but also, transcending traditional boundaries to encompass a holistic approach to customer experience, innovation, and societal impact. This year anticipates exciting culinary creations, exceptional service, and an ambiance that transcends the ordinary.

Al Bustan Residence is undergoing a phased renovation considering the impact on guest satisfaction during different stages to minimize disruptions. Balancing the preservation of the hotel's identity with the need for modernization, the transformation also focused not only on investing in aesthetic enhancements, but we have greatly considered comfort and convenience.

I want to highlight some key aspects, particularly the replacement of our air-conditioning system (chillers) and the installation of state-of-the-art fresh air units, recognizing the importance of air quality in creating a healthy and revitalized environment. This upgrade not only ensures more efficient cooling and ventilation throughout the hotel but also contributes to a more sustainable and eco-friendly operation.

One of the most exciting aspects of the renovation is the reimagining of spaces, from custom-designed furniture with integration of latest technology, ambient lighting and premium furnishings enhancing the atmosphere of tranquility, redefining the overall experience for our valued guests.

Marked by significant achievements in 2023, we took great pride in hosting an event that brought together fashion enthusiasts that echoed with the essence of our brand. Additionally, our commitment to excellence was further exemplified as we played host to esteemed international sports delegations.

I want to express my gratitude for your continued patronage and your presence enriches warmth at our hotel. Your support inspires us to continually strive for excellence in all that we do. Thank you for always choosing us as your home away from home as we eagerly anticipate the privilege of welcoming you.

Looking ahead, our commitment to providing memorable experiences, fostering community engagement, and championing sustainability will remain steadfast. This year, we aim to go beyond the conventional and shape milestones that resonate with excellence and innovation – we are curators of experiences, architects of memories, and ambassadors of unparalleled service.

Beyond Hospitality, let us shape the future together.
